7 BANK OF AMERICA, N.A.,

8 Plaintiff(s),

9 v.

10 CACTUS CREEK AT MOUNTAIN'S
11 EDGE HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION et al.,

12 Defendant(s).

Case No. 2:16-CV-606 JCM (CWH)

ORDER

13
14 Presently before the court is plaintiff Bank of America, N.A., successor by merger to BAC
15 Home Loans Servicing, LP f/k/a Countrywide Home Loans Servicing, LP's ("BANA") motion for 16 summary judgment. (ECF No. 27). Defendant Premier One Holdings, Inc. ("Premier") filed a 17 response (ECF No. 28), to which BANA replied (ECF No. 32).

18 I. Facts

19 This case involves a dispute over real property located at 10561 Cave Ridge Street, Las 20 Vegas, Nevada 89179 (the "property"). On July 23, 2008, James R. and Alexis S. Morris obtained
21 a loan in the amount of $230,505.00 to purchase the property, which was secured by a deed of trust
22 recorded on July 23, 2008. (ECF No. 1).

23 The deed of trust was assigned to BANA via an assignment of deed of trust recorded on 24 May 20, 2011. (ECF No. 1).

25 On October 24, 2012, defendant Nevada Association Services, Inc. ("NAS"), acting on 26 behalf of defendant Cactus Creek at Mountain's Edge Homeowners Association (the "HOA"), 27 recorded a notice of delinquent assessment lien, stating an amount due of $1,038.50. (ECF No.
28

1) On December 27, 2012, NAS recorded a notice of default and election to sell to satisfy the delinquent assessment lien, stating an amount due of $1,923.04. (ECF No. 1).

On February 12, 2013, BANA requested a ledger from the HOA/NAS identifying the superpriority amount allegedly owed to the HOA. (ECF No. 1). The HOA/NAS allegedly refused to provide a ledger. (ECF No. 1). BANA calculated the superpriority amount to be $270.00 and tendered that amount to NAS on March 22, 2013, which NAS allegedly refused. (ECF No. 1).

On August 22, 2013, NAS recorded a notice of trustee's sale, stating an amount due of $2,893.13. (ECF No. 1). On September 13, 2013, Premier purchased the property at the foreclosure sale for $15,100.00. (ECF No. 1). A trustee's deed upon sale in favor of Premier was recorded on September 24, 2013. (ECF No. 1).

On March 18, 2016, BANA filed the underlying complaint, alleging four causes of action: (1) quiet title/declaratory judgment against all defendants; (2) breach of NRS 116.1113 against NAS and the HOA; (3) wrongful foreclosure against NAS and the HOA; and (4) injunctive relief against Premier. (ECF No. 1).

In the instant motions, BANA moves for summary judgment. (ECF No. 27).

II. Legal Standard

The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure allow summary judgment when the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that "there is no genuine dispute as to any material fact and the movant is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law." Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(a). A principal purpose of summary judgment is "to isolate and dispose of factually unsupported claims." Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 323–24 (1986).

For purposes of summary judgment, disputed factual issues should be construed in favor of the non-moving party. Lujan v. Nat'l Wildlife Fed., 497 U.S. 871, 888 (1990). However, to be entitled to a denial of summary judgment, the nonmoving party must "set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue for trial." Id.

In determining summary judgment, a court applies a burden-shifting analysis. The moving party must first satisfy its initial burden. "When the party moving for summary judgment would

1 bear the burden of proof at trial, it must come forward with evidence which would entitle it to a 2 directed verdict if the evidence went uncontroverted at trial. In such a case, the moving party has 3 the initial burden of establishing the absence of a genuine issue of fact on each issue material to 4 its case.” C.A.R. Transp. Brokerage Co. v. Darden Rests., Inc., 213 F.3d 474, 480 (9th Cir. 2000)
5 (citations omitted).

6 By contrast, when the nonmoving party bears the burden of proving the claim or defense,
7 the moving party can meet its burden in two ways: (1) by presenting evidence to negate an essential
8 element of the non-moving party’s case; or (2) by demonstrating that the nonmoving party failed 9 to make a showing sufficient to establish an element essential to that party’s case on which that 10 party will bear the burden of proof at trial. See Celotex Corp., 477 U.S. at 323–24. If the moving 11 party fails to meet its initial burden, summary judgment must be denied and the court need not 12 consider the nonmoving party’s evidence. See Adickes v. S.H. Kress & Co., 398 U.S. 144, 159– 13 60 (1970).

14 If the moving party satisfies its initial burden, the burden then shifts to the opposing party
15 to establish that a genuine issue of material fact exists. See Matsushita Elec. Indus. Co. v. Zenith
16 Radio Corp., 475 U.S. 574, 586 (1986). To establish the existence of a factual dispute, the 17 opposing party need not establish a material issue of fact conclusively in its favor. It is sufficient 18 that “the claimed factual dispute be shown to require a jury or judge to resolve the parties’ differing 19 versions of the truth at trial.” T.W. Elec. Serv., Inc. v. Pac. Elec. Contractors Ass’n, 809 F.2d 626, 20 631 (9th Cir. 1987).

21 In other words, the nonmoving party cannot avoid summary judgment by relying solely on 22 conclusory allegations that are unsupported by factual data. See Taylor v. List, 880 F.2d 1040, 23 1045 (9th Cir. 1989). Instead, the opposition must go beyond the assertions and allegations of the 24 pleadings and set forth specific facts by producing competent evidence that shows a genuine issue
25 for trial. See Celotex, 477 U.S. at 324.

26 At summary judgment, a court’s function is not to weigh the evidence and determine the 27 truth, but to determine whether there is a genuine issue for trial. See Anderson v. Liberty Lobby,
28 Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 249 (1986). The evidence of the nonmovant is “to be believed, and all

1 justifiable inferences are to be drawn in his favor.” Id. at 255. But if the evidence of the 2 nonmoving party is merely colorable or is not significantly probative, summary judgment may be 3 granted. See id. at 249–50.

4 III. Discussion

5 A. Claims (2) through (4)

6 As an initial matter, the court dismisses, without prejudice, claims (2) through (4) of 7 BANA’s complaint (ECF No. 1).

8 Claims (2) and (3) are dismissed without prejudice for failure to mediate pursuant to NRS
9 38.330. See, e.g., Nev. Rev. Stat. § 38.330(1); McKnight Family, L.L.P. v. Adept Mgmt., 310 P.3d
10 555 (Nev. 2013). Subsection (1) of NRS 38.310 sets forth prerequisites for commencing a civil 11 action and provides, in relevant part:

12 No civil action based upon a claim relating to [t]he interpretation, application or 13 enforcement of any covenants, conditions or restrictions applicable to residential 14 property . . . or [t]he procedures used for increasing, decreasing or imposing additional assessments upon residential property, may be commenced in any court in this State unless the action has been submitted to mediation.

15 Nev. Rev. Stat. § 38.310(1). Subsection (2) continues by stating that a “court shall dismiss any 16 civil action which is commenced in violation of the provisions of subsection 1.” Nev. Rev. Stat.
17 § 38.310(2).

18 “A wrongful foreclosure claim challenges the authority behind the foreclosure, not the 19 foreclosure act itself.” McKnight Family, L.L.P., 310 P.3d at 559 (citing Collins v. Union Fed.
20 Sav. & Loan, 662 P.2d 610, 623 (Nev. 1983)). “The material issue in a wrongful foreclosure claim 21 is whether ‘the trustor was in default when the power of sale was exercised.’” Turbay v. Bank of 22 Am., N.A., No. 2:12-CV-1367-JCM-PAL; 2013 WL 1145212, at *4 (quoting Collins, 662 P.2d at 23 623). “Deciding a wrongful foreclosure claim against a homeowners’ association involves 24 interpreting covenants, conditions or restrictions applicable to residential property.” McKnight
25 Family, L.L.P., 310 P.3d at 559. “This type of interpretation falls under NRS 38.310.” Id.
26 Additionally, NRS 38.310 applies to laws “contain[ing] conditions and restrictions applicable to 27 residential property.” Id. at 558.

1 Similarly, BANA's breach of NRS 116.1113 claim alleges NRS violations, which require
2 an interpretation of the regulations and statutes that contained conditions and restrictions
3 applicable to the property so as to fall within the scope of NRS 38.310.

4 BANA asserts that NRS 38.330's mediation requirement is not applicable because it
5 submitted a demand for mediation to the Nevada Real Estate Division ("NRED") on September
6 21, 2015, but NRED failed to schedule the mediation within the time period required by NRS
7 38.330(1). (ECF No. 1 at 3). The court disagrees.

8 While NRS 38.330(1) explains the procedure for mediation,¹ NRS 38.310 is clear in 9 providing that no civil action may be commenced "unless the action has been submitted to 10 mediation." Specifically, subsection (1) goes on to state in relevant part:

11 If the parties participate in mediation and an agreement is not obtained, any party 12 may commence a civil action in the proper court concerning the claim that was 13 submitted to mediation. Any complaint filed in such an action must contain a sworn statement indicating that the issues addressed in the complaint have been mediated pursuant to the provisions of NRS 38.300 to 38.360, inclusive, but 14 an agreement was not obtained.

15 Nev. Rev. Stat. § 38.330(1) (emphasis added). While BANA has submitted a request for 16 mediation, the parties have not participated in mediation. Moreover, nothing in NRS 38.330
17 provides that NRED's failure to appoint a mediator within 60 days constitutes exhaustion, nor does 18 the statute place the burden on NRED to complete mediation within a specified period of time.
19 Thus, BANA has not exhausted its administrative remedies and must mediate certain claims prior 20 to initiating an action in court

21 Further, NRS 38.350 expressly tolls the statute of limitations applicable to BANA's claims
22 that are subject to mediation under NRS 38.310. Specifically, NRS 38.350 provides that "[a]ny 23 statute of limitations applicable to a claim described in NRS 38.310 is tolled from the time the 24 claim is submitted to mediation . . . until the conclusion of mediation . . . of the claim and the 25 period for vacating the award has expired." Nev. Rev. Stat. § 38.350. Therefore, BANA's claims

26
27
28 ¹ Subsection (1) of NRS 38.330 states that "[u]nless otherwise provided by an agreement of the parties, mediation must be completed within 60 days after the filing of the written claim."
Nev. Rev. Stat. § 38.330(1).

1 are not prejudiced by the statute's requirement that the parties participate in mediation prior to 2 initiating an action in court.

3 BANA's complaint does not allege that mediation under NRS 38.330 has been completed.
4 Specifically, the complaint does not contain a sworn statement indicating that the issues set forth
5 in the complaint have been mediated, but no agreement was obtained. See Nev. Rev. Stat. §
6 38.330(1). Consequently, BANA must first submit claims (2) and (3) to mediation pursuant to 7 NRS 33.310 before proceeding with such claims in this court. See e.g., U.S. Bank, N.A. v.
8 Woodchase Condo. Homeowners Ass'n, No. 215CV01153APGGWF, 2016 WL 1734085, at *2
9 (D. Nev. May 2, 2016); Saticoy Bay, LLC Series 1702 Empire Mine v. Fed. Nat'l Mortg. Ass'n,
10 No. 214-cv-01975-KJD-NJK, 2015 WL 5709484, at *4 (D. Nev. Sept. 29, 2015).

11 Count (4) is dismissed without prejudice because the court follows the well-settled rule in 12 that a claim for "injunctive relief" standing alone is not a cause of action. See, e.g., In re Wal-
13 Mart Wage & Hour Emp't Practices Litig., 490 F. Supp. 2d 1091, 1130 (D. Nev. 2007); Tillman
14 v. Quality Loan Serv. Corp., No. 2:12-CV-346 JCM RJJ, 2012 WL 1279939, at *3 (D. Nev. Apr.
15 13, 2012) (finding that "injunctive relief is a remedy, not an independent cause of action"); Jensen 16 v. Quality Loan Serv. Corp., 702 F. Supp. 2d 1183, 1201 (E.D. Cal. 2010) ("A request for 17 injunctive relief by itself does not state a cause of action.").

18 B. Claim (1)²

19 Under Nevada law, "[a]n action may be brought by any person against another who claims 20 an estate or interest in real property, adverse to the person bringing the action for the purpose of 21 determining such adverse claim." Nev. Rev. Stat. § 40.010. "A plea to quiet title does not require 22 any particular elements, but each party must plead and prove his or her own claim to the property 23 in question and a plaintiff's right to relief therefore depends on superiority of title." Chapman v.
24 Deutsche Bank Nat'l Trust Co., 302 P.3d 1103, 1106 (Nev. 2013) (internal quotation marks and 25 citations omitted). Therefore, for plaintiff to succeed on its quiet title action, it needs to show that 26 its claim to the property is superior to all others. See also Breliant v. Preferred Equities Corp.,

27
28 ² The 2015 Legislature revised Chapter 116 substantially. 2015 Nev. Stat., ch. 266. Except where otherwise indicated, the references in this order to statutes codified in NRS Chapter 116 are to the version of the statutes in effect in 2012–13, when the events giving rise to this litigation occurred.

1 918 P.2d 314, 318 (Nev. 1996) (“In a quiet title action, the burden of proof rests with the plaintiff
2 to prove good title in himself.”).

3 Section 116.3116(1) of the NRS gives an HOA a lien on its homeowners’ residences for 4 unpaid assessments and fines. Nev. Rev. Stat. § 116.3116(1). Moreover, NRS 116.3116(2) gives 5 priority to that HOA lien over all other liens and encumbrances with limited exceptions—such as 6 “[a] first security interest on the unit recorded before the date on which the assessment sought to 7 be enforced became delinquent.” Nev. Rev. Stat. § 116.3116(2)(b).

8 The statute then carves out a partial exception to subparagraph (2)(b)’s exception for first 9 security interests. See Nev. Rev. Stat. § 116.3116(2). In SFR Investment Pool 1 v. U.S. Bank, the 10 Nevada Supreme Court provided the following explanation:

11 As to first deeds of trust, NRS 116.3116(2) thus splits an HOA lien into two pieces, 12 a superpriority piece and a subpriority piece. The superpriority piece, consisting of 13 the last nine months of unpaid HOA dues and maintenance and nuisance-abatement charges, is “prior to” a first deed of trust. The subpriority piece, consisting of all other HOA fees or assessments, is subordinate to a first deed of trust.

14 334 P.3d 408, 411 (Nev. 2014) (“SFR Investments”).

15 Chapter 116 of the Nevada Revised Statutes permits an HOA to enforce its superpriority
16 lien by nonjudicial foreclosure sale. Id. at 415. Thus, “NRS 116.3116(2) provides an HOA a true 17 superpriority lien, proper foreclosure of which will extinguish a first deed of trust.” Id. at 419; see 18 also Nev. Rev. Stat. § 116.3116(2) (providing that “the association may foreclose its lien by sale” 19 upon compliance with the statutory notice and timing rules).

20 1. Rejected Tender

21 In the instant motion, BANA argues that its tender on March 22, 2013, to NAS preserved
22 the sonority of BANA’s deed of trust. (ECF No. 27 at 5–8). BANA asserts that it calculated the 23 superpriority amount to be $270.00 and tendered that amount to NAS on March 22, 2013, which 24 NAS allegedly refused. (ECF No. 27 at 7).

25 The court disagrees. BANA did not tender the amount sent forth in the notice of default,
26 which stated an amount due of $1,923.04. Rather, BANA tendered a lesser amount, the amount it 27 calculated to be sufficient—specifically, $270.00.

1 Under NRS 116.31166(1), the holder of a first deed of trust may pay off the superpriority
2 portion of an HOA lien to prevent the foreclosure sale from extinguishing that security interest.
3 See Nev. Rev. Stat. § 116.31166(1); see also SFR Investments, 334 P.3d at 414 (“But as a junior
4 lienholder, U.S. Bank could have paid off the SHHOA lien to avert loss of its security”); see
5 also, e.g., 7912 Limbwood Ct. Trust v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., et al., 979 F. Supp. 2d 1142, 1149
6 (D. Nev. 2013) (“If junior lienholders want to avoid this result, they readily can preserve their 7 security interests by buying out the senior lienholder’s interest.” (citing Carillo v. Valley Bank of 8 Nev., 734 P.2d 724, 725 (Nev. 1987); Keever v. Nicholas Beers Co., 611 P.2d 1079, 1083 (Nev.
9 1980))).

10 The superpriority lien portion, however, consists of “the last nine months of unpaid HOA 11 dues and maintenance and nuisance-abatement charges,” while the subpriority piece consists of 12 “all other HOA fees or assessments.” SFR Investments, 334 P.3d at 411 (emphasis added); see 13 also 7912 Limbwood Ct. Trust, 979 F. Supp. 2d at 1150 (“The superpriority lien consists only of 14 unpaid assessments and certain charges specifically identified in § 116.31162.”). BANA offered
15 $270.00 based on its calculation of the nine months of unpaid HOA dues, without adequately
16 accounting for the maintenance and nuisance-abatement charges. Further, BANA fails to explain 17 why it was appropriate to eliminate the other charges calculated in the ledger’s superpriority total.

18 BANA merely presumed, without adequate support, that the amount set forth in the notice 19 of default included more than the superpriority lien portion and that a lesser amount based on 20 BANA’s own calculations would be sufficient to preserve its interest in the property. See 21 generally, e.g., Nev. Rev. Stat. § 107.080 (allowing trustee’s sale under a deed of trust only when 22 a subordinate interest has failed to make good the deficiency in performance or payment for 35
23 days); Nev. Rev. Stat. § 40.430 (barring judicially ordered foreclosure sale if the deficiency is 24 made good at least 5 days prior to sale).

25 The notice of default recorded December 27, 2012, set forth an amount due of $1,923.04.
26 (ECF No. 1). Rather than tendering the $1,923.04 due so as to preserve its interest in the property
27 and then later seeking a refund of any difference, BANA elected to pay a lesser amount ($270.00)
28 based on its unwarranted assumption that the amount stated in the notice included more than what

1 was due. See SFR Investments, 334 P.3d at 418 (noting that the deed of trust holder can pay the 2 entire lien amount and then sue for a refund). Had BANA paid the amount set forth in the notice
3 of default ($1,923.04), the HOA’s interest would have been subordinate to the first deed of trust.
4 See Nev. Rev. Stat. § 116.31166(1).

5 After failing to use the legal remedies available to BANA to prevent the property from 6 being sold to a third party—for example, seeking a temporary restraining order and preliminary 7 injunction and filing a lis pendens on the property (see Nev. Rev. Stat. §§ 14.010, 40.060)—
8 BANA now seeks to profit from its own failure to follow the rules set forth in the statutes. See
9 generally, e.g., Barkley’s Appeal. Bentley’s Estate, 2 Monag. 274, 277 (Pa. 1888) (“In the case
10 before us, we can see no way of giving the petitioner the equitable relief she asks without doing 11 great injustice to other innocent parties who would not have been in a position to be injured by 12 such a decree as she asks if she had applied for relief at an earlier day.”); Nussbaumer v. Superior 13 Court in & for Yuma Cty., 489 P.2d 843, 846 (Ariz. 1971) (“Where the complaining party has 14 access to all the facts surrounding the questioned transaction and merely makes a mistake as to the 15 legal consequences of his act, equity should normally not interfere, especially where the rights of 16 third parties might be prejudiced thereby.”).

17 In presuming that an “offer” to pay constitutes a “tender” of payment, BANA cites to Stone
18 Hollow Ave. Trust v. Bank of Am., Nat’l Ass’n, 382 P.3d 911 (Nev. 2016), for the proposition that 19 an offer to pay the superpriority amount prior to the foreclosure sale preserves the lender’s deed
20 of trust. (ECF No. 27 at 5–8).

21 The Stone Hollow court, however, made no such holding. To the contrary, the Stone 22 Hollow court held that “[w]hen rejection of a tender is unjustified, the tender is effective to 23 discharge the lien.” 382 P.3d at 911. BANA has not set forth any evidence as to a tender in a 24 sufficient amount.

25 Based on the foregoing, BANA has failed to sufficiently establish that it tendered a
26 sufficient amount prior to the foreclosure sale so as to render Premier’s title subject to BANA’s 27 deed of trust.

1 2. Due Process

2 BANA argues that the HOA lien statute is facially unconstitutional because it does not 3 mandate notice to deed of trust beneficiaries. (ECF No. 27 at 8–11). BANA further contends that 4 any factual issues concerning actual notice is irrelevant pursuant to Bourne Valley Court Trust v.
5 Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., 832 F.3d 1154 (9th Cir. 2016) (“Bourne Valley”). (ECF No. 27 at 8–11).

6 The Ninth Circuit held that NRS 116.3116’s “opt-in” notice scheme, which required a
7 HOA to alert a mortgage lender that it intended to foreclose only if the lender had affirmatively
8 requested notice, facially violated mortgage lenders’ constitutional due process rights. Bourne
9 Valley, 832 F.3d at 1157–58. The facially unconstitutional provision, as identified in Bourne
10 Valley, exists in NRS 116.31163(2). See id. at 1158. At issue is the “opt-in” provision that 11 unconstitutionally shifts the notice burden to holders of the property interest at risk. See id.

12 To state a procedural due process claim, a claimant must allege “(1) a deprivation of a 13 constitutionally protected liberty or property interest, and (2) a denial of adequate procedural 14 protections.” Brewster v. Bd. of Educ. of Lynwood Unified Sch. Dist., 149 F.3d 971, 982 (9th Cir.
15 1998). BANA has satisfied the first element as a deed of trust is a property interest under Nevada
16 law. See Nev. Rev. Stat. § 107.020 et seq.; see also Mennonite Bd. of Missions v. Adams, 462 U.S.
17 791, 798 (1983) (stating that “a mortgagee possesses a substantial property interest that is 18 significantly affected by a tax sale”). However, BANA fails on the second prong.

19 Due process does not require actual notice. Jones v. Flowers, 547 U.S. 220, 226 (2006).
20 Rather, it requires notice “reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to apprise interested 21 parties of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections.”
22 Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306, 314 (1950); see also Bourne Valley, 23 832 F.3d at 1158.

24 Here, adequate notice was given to the interested parties prior to extinguishing a property
25 right. In fact, BANA acknowledges having received the notice of default. (ECF No. 27-7 at 6 26 (“This letter is written in response to your Notice of Default with regard to the HOA assessments 27 purportedly owed on the above described real property.”). As a result, the notice of trustee’s sale
28 was sufficient notice to cure any constitutional defect inherent in NRS 116.31163(2) as it put

1 BANA on notice that its interest was subject to pendency of action and offered all of the required
2 information. See also Spears v. Spears, 596 P.2d 210, 212 (Nev. 1979) (“The rule is well
3 established that one who is not prejudiced by the operation of a statute cannot question its 4 validity.”). Further, BANA does not dispute receiving actual notice of the foreclosure sale, but 5 merely that “actual notice does not change the analysis.” (ECF No. 27 at 11).

6 3. Commercial Reasonability

7 BANA contends that judgment in its favor is appropriate because the sale of the property
8 for 8% of its fair market value is grossly inadequate as a matter of law. (ECF No. 2 at 12–15).
9 BANA further argues that the Shadow Wood court adopted the restatement approach, quoting the 10 opinion as holding that “[w]hile gross inadequacy cannot be precisely defined in terms of a specific 11 percentage of fair market value, generally a court is warranted in invalidating a sale where the 12 price is less than 20 percent of fair market value.” (ECF No. 27 at 12) (emphasis omitted).

13 NRS 116.3116 codifies the Uniform Common Interest Ownership Act (“UCIOA”) in 14 Nevada. See Nev. Rev. Stat. § 116.001 (“This chapter may be cited as the Uniform Common-15 Interest Ownership Act”); see also SFR Investments, 334 P.3d at 410. Numerous courts have 16 interpreted the UCIOA and NRS 116.3116 as imposing a commercial reasonableness standard on 17 foreclosure of association liens.³

18 In Shadow Wood, the Nevada Supreme Court held that an HOA’s foreclosure sale may be 19 set aside under a court’s equitable powers notwithstanding any recitals on the foreclosure deed
20 where there is a “grossly inadequate” sales price and “fraud, unfairness, or oppression.” 366 P.3d
21 at 1110; see also Nationstar Mortg., LLC v. SFR Invs. Pool 1, LLC, 184 F. Supp. 3d 853, 857–58

22 ³ See, e.g., Bayview Loan Servicing, LLC v. Alessi & Koenig, LLC, 962 F. Supp. 2d 1222, 1229
23 (D. Nev. 2013) (“[T]he sale for $10,000 of a Property that was worth $176,000 in 2004, and which 24 was probably worth somewhat more than half as much when sold at the foreclosure sale, raises
25 serious doubts as to commercial reasonableness.”); SFR Investments, 334 P.3d at 418 n.6 (noting 26 bank’s argument that purchase at association foreclosure sale was not commercially reasonable); 27 Thunder Props., Inc. v. Wood, No. 3:14-cv-00068-RCJ-WGC, 2014 WL 6608836, at *2 (D. Nev.
28 Nov. 19, 2014) (concluding that purchase price of “less than 2% of the amounts of the deed of trust” established commercial unreasonableness “almost conclusively”); Rainbow Bend Homeowners Ass’n v. Wilder, No. 3:13-cv-00007-RCJ-VPC, 2014 WL 132439, at *2 (D. Nev.
Jan. 10, 2014) (deciding case on other grounds but noting that “the purchase of a residential property free and clear of all encumbrances for the price of delinquent HOA dues would raise grave doubts as to the commercial reasonableness of the sale under Nevada law”); Will v. Mill Condo. Owners’ Ass’n, 848 A.2d 336, 340 (Vt. 2004) (discussing commercial reasonableness standard and concluding that “the UCIOA does provide for this additional layer of protection”).

1 (D. Nev. 2016). In other words, “demonstrating that an association sold a property at its 2 foreclosure sale for an inadequate price is not enough to set aside that sale; there must also be a
3 showing of fraud, unfairness, or oppression.” Id. at 1112; see also Long v. Towne, 639 P.2d 528,
4 530 (Nev. 1982) (“Mere inadequacy of price is not sufficient to justify setting aside a foreclosure
5 sale, absent a showing of fraud, unfairness or oppression.” (citing Golden v. Tomiyasu, 387 P.2d
6 989, 995 (Nev. 1963) (stating that, while a power-of-sale foreclosure may not be set aside for mere 7 inadequacy of price, it may be if the price is grossly inadequate and there is “in addition proof of 8 some element of fraud, unfairness, or oppression as accounts for and brings about the inadequacy 9 of price” (internal quotation omitted)))).

10 Despite BANA’s assertion to the contrary, the Shadow Wood court did not adopt the 11 restatement. In fact, nothing in Shadow Wood suggests that the Nevada Supreme Court’s adopted, 12 or had the intention to adopt, the restatement. Compare Shadow Wood, 366 P.3d at 1112–13 (citing 13 the restatement as secondary authority to warrant use of the 20% threshold test for grossly 14 inadequate sales price), with St. James Village, Inc. v. Cunningham, 210 P.3d 190, 213 (Nev. 2009)
15 (explicitly adopting § 4.8 of the Restatement in specific circumstances); Foster v. Costco
16 Wholesale Corp., 291 P.3d 150, 153 (Nev. 2012) (“[W]e adopt the rule set forth in the Restatement 17 (Third) of Torts: Physical and Emotional Harm section 51.”); Cucinotta v. Deloitte & Touche, 18 LLP, 302 P.3d 1099, 1102 (Nev. 2013) (affirmatively adopting the Restatement (Second) of Torts
19 section 592A). Because Nevada courts have not adopted the relevant section(s) of the restatement
20 at issue here, the Long test, which requires a showing of fraud, unfairness, or oppression in addition 21 to a grossly inadequate sale price to set aside a foreclosure sale, controls. See 639 P.2d at 530.

22 Nevada has not clearly defined what constitutes “unfairness” in determining commercial 23 reasonableness. The few Nevada cases that have discussed commercial reasonableness state, 24 “every aspect of the disposition, including the method, manner, time, place, and terms, must be 25 commercially reasonable.” Levers v. Rio King Land & Inv. Co., 560 P.2d 917, 920 (Nev. 1977).
26 This includes “quality of the publicity, the price obtained at the auction, [and] the number of 27 bidders in attendance.” Dennison v. Allen Grp. Leasing Corp., 871 P.2d 288, 291 (Nev. 1994)
28 (citing Savage Constr. v. Challenge–Cook, 714 P.2d 573, 574 (Nev. 1986)).

1 Nevertheless, BANA fails to set forth sufficient evidence to show fraud, unfairness, or 2 oppression so as to justify the setting aside of the foreclosure sale. BANA relies on its repeated
3 assertion that BANA tendered the superpriority amount to show fraud, unfairness, or oppression.
4 However, as the discussed in the previous section, the amount due on the date of BANA's tender
5 was set forth in the notice of default, specifically, $2,339.50. Rather than tendering the noticed
6 amount under protest so as to preserve its interest and then later seeking a refund of the difference
7 in dispute, BANA chose to tender a lesser amount ($270.00), an amount it calculated to be the 8 superpriority portion.

9 Accordingly, BANA's commercial reasonability argument fails as a matter of law as it
10 failed to set forth evidence of fraud, unfairness, or oppression. See, e.g., Nationstar Mortg., LLC
11 v. SFR Investments Pool 1, LLC, No. 70653, 2017 WL 1423938, at *2 n.2 (Nev. App. Apr. 17, 12 2017) ("Sale price alone, however, is never enough to demonstrate that the sale was commercially
13 unreasonable; rather, the party challenging the sale must also make a showing of fraud, unfairness, 14 or oppression that brought about the low sale price.").

15 4. Bona Fide Purchaser Status

16 Because the court has concluded that BANA failed to properly raise any equitable 17 challenges to the foreclosure sale, the court need not address BANA's argument that Premier was 18 not a bona fide purchaser for value. See id. at *3 n.3 (citing Shadow Wood, 366 P.3d at 1114).

19 5. Supremacy Clause

20 BANA argues that the HOA lien statute cannot interfere with the federal mortgage 21 insurance program or extinguish mortgage interests insured by the FHA. (ECF No. 27 at 15–21).

22 The single-family mortgage insurance program allows FHA to insure private loans, 23 expanding the availability of mortgages to low-income individuals wishing to purchase homes.
24 See Sec'y of Hous. & Urban Dev. v. Sky Meadow Ass'n, 117 F. Supp. 2d 970, 980–81 (C.D. Cal.
25 2000) (discussing program); W. Wash. & Sandhill Homeowners Ass'n v. Bank of Am., N.A., No.
26 2:13-cv-01845-GMN-GWF, 2014 WL 4798565, at *1 n.2 (D. Nev. Sept. 25, 2014) (same). If a 27 borrower under this program defaults, the lender may foreclose on the property, convey title to 28

1 HUD, and submit an insurance claim. 24 C.F.R. § 203.355. HUD's property disposition program
2 generates funds to finance the program. See 24 C.F.R. § 291.1.

3 Allowing an HOA foreclosure to wipe out a first deed of trust on a federally-insured
4 property thus interferes with the purposes of the FHA insurance program. Specifically, it hinders
5 HUD's ability to recoup funds from insured properties. As this court previously stated in 6 SaticoyBayLLC, Series 7342 Tanglewood Park v. SRMOF II 2012-1 Trust, the court reads the 7 foregoing precedent to indicate that a homeowners' association foreclosure sale under NRS
8 116.3116 may not extinguish a federally-insured loan. No. 2:13-CV-1199 JCM (VCF), 2015 WL
9 1990076, at *4 (D. Nev. Apr. 30, 2015).

10 However, the instant case is distinguishable from these cases in that, here, FHA is not a 11 named party. No named party seeks to quiet title against FHA. Thus, this argument provides no
12 support for BANA as the outcome of the instant case has no bearing on FHA's ability to quiet title.

13 6. Retroactivity

14 BANA contends that SFR Investments should not be applied retroactively to extinguish the 15 first deed of trust. (ECF No. 27 at 21–23).

16 The Nevada Supreme Court has since applied the SFR Investments holding in numerous 17 cases that challenged pre-SFR Investments foreclosure sales. See, e.g., Centeno v. Mortg. Elec.
18 Registration Sys., Inc., No. 64998, 2016 WL 3486378, at *2 (Nev. June 23, 2016); LN Mgmt. LLC
19 Series 8301 Boseck 228 v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., No. 64495, 2016 WL 1109295, at *1 (Nev.
20 Mar. 18, 2016) (reversing 2013 dismissal of quiet-title action that concluded contrary to SFR
21 Investments, reasoning that “the district court’s decision was based on an erroneous interpretation
22 of the controlling law”); Mackensie Family, LLC v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., No. 65696, 2016 WL
23 315326, at *1 (Nev. Jan. 22, 2016) (reversing and remanding because “[t]he district court’s 24 conclusion of law contradicts our holding in SFR Investments Pool I v. U.S. Bank”). Thus, SFR
25 Investments applies to this case.

26 In light of the foregoing, BANA has failed to show that it is entitled to judgment as a matter
27 of law on its claims against the HOA, NAS, or Premier.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that BANA's motion for summary judgment (ECF No. 27) be, and the same hereby is, DENIED.
